

Doris Butler was a dedicated mentor in the PAL Program of Volunteers for Youth for a number of years before her passing. When first matched with Sarah she faced the fairly common challenge of breaking the ice with a very shy and reserved mentee. In the first weeks and months of their relationship, Doris struggled to draw Sarah out and have two-way conversations with her. On a whim, she decided to create a bingo game that would feature conversation starters as the basis of the game. What you see pictured above is based on the original version hand-made by Doris. It is our hope that Doris and her creativity will live on through this game.
